D, were kept from attenda ce by sickness. A report on the evangelization of the colored people was adopted setting forth the great interest and importance of the work and urging the ministers and people of our Presbytery to enter with z al into every door that may open to us to engage in it. The report adopted on publication gives to the Assembly's Committee or Publication the vexations, irregularities and dalays encounter. ed in setting from their agent supplies of books, &s., for our estporteur. The committee of home missions were di-ited with Grove Church unde Revs. J. C. Psinter and A. W. Pitzer were ordered to visit Calpaper Church together at their earl est conventecce to advise and encourage the prethren in their effects to secure a

By appointment made at the sping meeting R.v. J. F. Cannon preached a sermon on the proper ous rvance of the Lord's day, which led to a further discussion of the su ject by Messrs. Cannon, Dinwiedi , Poltock, Curabuil and Scott. The report adopted arges all our ministers and sessions not to rest content with the public presentation of the su'j c. from the pulpit, but to endeavor by private persussion and counsel to secure the reverent observance of the Lord's day in all our families; that our Sunday schools be instructed as as to fortify our young pro de against the lesidious errors which are rife in this matter; and that scove co operation be sought with all other Christians in effort to cultivate a healthy public sentiment, and to have enforced the existing laws against the desecration of the Lord's day.

Presbytery overcared the General Assembly to send down to Presbyteries to be voted on in the regular method the following amendment to chap, x1, s.c. 3 of the Rules of Discipline, to be added at one end of the section.

H. Branch, J F. Cannon and C. B. Ball were appointed a committee to X mine the new directory of worship sent down by by the assembly's commutee of revision and report on the same to the soring c mmittee. J. A. Soott, jr., R.
